Exhibit at the Northwest Coin Club March 2022 Money Show

Thinking about exhibiting at the Northwest Coin Club Spring Money Show in March? Now is the time to start. Exhibiting is all about telling numismatic stories with coins, medals, tokens, currency, and all manner of exonomia.

The exhibiting format is flexible. Maybe you want to exhibit your collection in a traditional table top exhibit in one or more dealer cases. Maybe you have in mind an upright/vertical framed State Fair style exhibit on an easel. Either format is acceptable, and both will be judged together, with first, second and third place medals being awarded. There will also be a “peoples choice” award for the most popular exhibit selected by Show attendees.

Attached is an Exhibit Application. The Exhibit Application is also available at the Northwest Coin Club’s website. Tell us about your proposed Exhibit. Fill out and submit an Exhibit Application by attaching it to an e-mail addressed to: nwccmoneyshow@gmail.com OR Print out an Exhibit Application and submit the hard copy to:

New this year:

The Numismatic Story Board, A non-competitive alternative

Do you want to share your numismatic knowledge, but don’t want your coins to compete with those of other collectors, or perhaps you don’t have the coins needed to fill out a traditional exhibit. A tri-fold, vertical, “science fair” style triptych might be the answer. This year, the Northwest Coin Club (NWCC) has created a new category of information sharing, we call, “The Numismatic Story Board.”

With or without coins, you can share a coin related narrative to inform and entertain. The Numismatic Story Boards will not be judged, and are therefore not eligible for awards. A Numismatic Story Board Application form is also attached. The form is also available on the NWCC website. The application can be submitted either via e-mail to:

nwccmoneyshow@gmail.com or submitted via Hard Copy to:

The American Numismatic Association (ANA) is contemplating including Story Board style exhibits at its Summer, “World’s Fair of Money” and/or its Spring, “Money Show.” Perhaps the ANA could view the NWCC as a pilot and your exhibit could inspire this potential national innovation.
